

MOBI Pre-Survey 2012

1. A child is new to your practice. No shot records have been received from the child's previous provider, and the child's mother is vague concerning which vaccinations the child has had. What would you normally do?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Not give vaccinations until the child's records are available b. Give age-appropriate vaccinations c. Begin vaccination series again
2. If a child is not up to date, what is the maximum number of vaccinations you would give during a single visit?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. 1 injection b. 2 injections c. 3 injections d. 4 injections e. No maximum number - give age-appropriate vaccinations f. Number of injections depends on muscle mass
3. Which Childhood Immunization Schedule is your practice using?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. 2010 b. 2011 c. 2012 d. Not sure
4. Which of these practices are routinely followed in your office? Circle all that apply.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Give vaccination during sick child visit b. Check immunization records of siblings while family is in the office c. Give vaccination without physical exam d. Refer families to public health clinics if they cannot afford immunizations or for other factors e. Screen charts for immunization dates during all visits f. Give vaccination without a Vaccine Information Statement (VIS) g. Educate parents concerning true vaccination contraindications and immunization practices
5. How do you measure immunization levels in your practice?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Chart review b. AFIX process c. Electronic Health Record (EHR) check d. Not sure if measured
6. Which strategies does your office use to help parents remember to return for vaccination? Circle all that apply.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. None used b. Letter, postcard or phone call to remind a parent of an appointment c. Letter, postcard or phone call to follow up on a missed appointment d. Letter, postcard or phone call to remind a parent when a child is due for a vaccination e. Letter, postcard or phone call to follow up on a missed vaccination f. Not sure